A judgment could be awarded by the court before the expiration of the discount offer listed in this letter. A judgment may include costs and post-judgment interest which may increase the balance owed. If you pay the discount offer in this letter by 05/31/2020, we will satisfy the judgment in full upon receipt of payment based on the balance stated in this letter. Please contact us if you have any questions.

When your account has been paid, and if data related to the account is still being furnished to the consumer reporting agencies, a request will be made of the three major consumer reporting agencies to report the Midland Funding LLC trade line related to the above referenced account as paid.
